Case No.72/2014

Shri Naresh Prajapati ----- Complainant

Vs.

Senior Police Inspector, Kasarwadi Police ----- Respondents
Statlion, Manpada,Thane (West) & Ors.

Background:-

This matter has been filed by complainant named Mrs. Poonam Prajapati, making allegation that her two years daughter Miss Manju was stolen from her residence. However, till date police is unable to trace the child. The Commission took cognizance, issued notice, called the police officer and inquired about the progress in order to rescue the child. Police has filed the detailed reply on 11th March, 2014 saying that police is taking the appropriate step to trace the child and however, till the date police is unable to get success, even number of persons have been arrested and investigation by police in this regard are going on. During the hearing, Commission directed police to submit progress report in this matter and also submitted a reply on 7th May, 2014 refuting the charges of Corruption as made by the complaint. As matter is with the police, therefore, Commission is disposing this matter with directing the police to submit the progress report in this case.
