Background

This matter came before the Commission by e-mail sent by the complainant, requesting for admission of his daughter in the nearby school.

2. On the basis of mail, the Commission took the cognizance, issued notices to schools and complainant. However complainant did not turn up, other respondents also not turn up. Respondent No.5 filed their reply stating as his school is minority school therefore Right to Education Act is not applicable following Hon'ble Supreme Court's order dated 6/5/2014. Contents of the complaint are not clear therefore matter is disposed of without any recommendation.
