C.R.No.37/2013

Suo Moto

This matter has been taken up by the Commission suo moto, on the basis of newspaper report appeared in the "Times of India", saying that one three years old girl abducted and raped in Dharavi. Criminal medical reports established that victims sustained injury on her private parts. The incident occurred between 6.30 p.m. to 7.30 p.m. when the girl was picked up by the accused in front of her brother who is 5 years old. The victim's brother who witnessed his sister being taken away. The Commission took up the cognizance, issued the notice, and called report. Police has submitted written reply. It reveals that one Smt. Machra Khatan Ansari, respondent of Dharavi, filed FIR mentioning that her daughter Kum Sahista, 3 year old, was abducted and raped by unknown person. Police has registered the matter, constituted a team of his Mahila Women called Women Villages Committee and with the help of said Committee tried to explore the outcome to arrest the accused. The Dr.'s report does not confirm beyond doubt that child was raped. However, possibility cannot be ruled that child could have been got first injured between the vagina and thick. The exact outcome can be appeared once chemical report is received.

2. In the said matter, on the basis of police report, it is directed to investigate the matter as soon as possible and submit the report. Matter is disposed of.
