Case No.207 / 2013-14

Suo Moto

Background

On the basis of news reports appeared in various newspapers mentioning that a 12 years old boy was mercilessly thrashed and beaten after being stripped naked for stealing spare parts from a vehicle in Wadala. Photo appeared in newspaper is showing that hand of child was tightened. Boy was later on handed over to police by truck driver. Police has filed F.I.R. against the child. Boy was shifted in Dongri Observation Home and from there he was admitted in Sion hospital. The Commission took the cognizance, issued notices, called concern parties. The Senior Police Inspector, Wadala has submitted detail reply saying that in the matter, case has been registered against bus driver, under various sections of Indian Penal Code and Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 and inquiry is going on. The accused are from Uttar Pradesh therefore police party has already left to arrest him. Senior police inspector assured that appropriate legal action shall be taken in this matter and rights of child shall be secured. In view of above, matter is disposed off with direction to police, ^{for} submitting detail report to the Commission.

By order and seal of the Commission.
